Want an interesting class next semester?

Want to learn about how people become who they are, about how societies form and change, about how institutions like schools and prison impact people’s everyday lives?

SOC 101 Introduction to Sociology
SOC 302 Sociological Theory

Want to know why families matter? How our society if changing in different ways?

SOC 301 The family
SOC 307 Urban sociology
SOC 311 Social problems
SOC 312 Poverty and society
SOC 315 Leisure and pop culture
SOC 325 Sociology of gender
SOC 332 Sociology of peace and justice
SOC 333 Juvenile delinquency
SOC 336 Sociology of religion

Want to learn how to study and understand changes in societies and human populations? It’s not just numbers! Learn how and why changes in population can affect your life and the health and well-being of the planet.

SOC 345 Population Trends and Problems
SOC 349 Applied demography
SOC 361 Sociology of education

Want to learn how politics works (or doesn’t work) in the day-to-day of our social lives? Or how citizens build democratic communities and interact with each other in “the public sphere”?

SOC 366 Political Sociology
SOC 370 Society and Population Health
SOC 410 The Color Line in the 21st Century
SOC 420 Studies in Housing Insecurity
SOC 440 Sociology of Music

People studying people: https://socanth.olemiss.edu/